

CHILDREN'S HEALTH INITIATIVE COORDINATOR (PROGRAM MANAGER I)

Public Health

The recruitment will remain open until sufficient applications from qualified candidates are received.

THE JOB

This position is responsible for the facilitation of the Clark County Child health initiative, development, and promotion of services within the community that improves the physical, social and mental well being of children from birth to 5 years of age. Priority areas of program development include initiating a Nurse Family Partnership (NFP) in Clark County. Another responsibility is to assure integration and coordination of services with the Clark County Support for Early Learning and Families (SELF) coalition and the child health initiative. Regular activities include program planning and design, development of policies, procedures and goals, establishing staffing and budget, organizing and supervising assigned staff, program evaluation and other ancillary duties; engaging community stakeholders and partners in developing new initiatives and delivering public health services targeting families with young children; representing the department at meetings and functions at the local and state level to promote and develop improved children's health status; coordinating and collaborating with other program, department, and county managers on related activities; supervision of NFP staff and compliance with NFP protocols; understanding and promoting the public health mission of the department; providing courteous, respectful, efficient customer service to all Health Department clients; honoring diversity of all department employees and constituents; participating in health department training, NFP training; and striving for personal excellence in public health work.

QUALIFICATIONS

This position requires a bachelor's degree in nursing and at least four years of related experience including supervision or a combination of education, experience and training that demonstrates the ability to perform the work. The candidate must also have had at least 4 years of clinical experience (e.g. Child growth and development, pediatrics, children's mental health, home visitation). Experience in a public health setting is preferred. A master's degree in nursing or public health field is preferred. Strong management experience with demonstrated success in leading organizational change will be valued over educational experience alone. The ideal candidate will have the following strengths:

- Demonstrated skills in public health nursing principles, practices, and techniques as well as clinical proficiencies.
- Strong supervision, leadership and management skills.
- Strong interpersonal skills.
- Strong background in using science and data to make decisions and implement public health services.
- Ability to respond to public health emergencies or exercises at any time, except while on scheduled vacation or other leave. In addition, leaves may be cancelled under public health emergencies.
- Adhere to OSHA/WISHA guidelines, including but not limited to timely completion of mandatory trainings.
- Possess a valid driver's license and have access to reliable transportation.
- Must successfully pass a criminal history background check through Washington State Patrol.

Knowledge of: public health nursing principles, practices, and techniques; demonstrated ability to apply community facilitation, consensus building and community level advocacy; principles and practices of program operations, project management, including planning, scheduling, monitoring, and problem solving; methods and procedures of budget development, justification, monitoring and forecasting; principles and practices of quality assurance and quality improvement; qualitative and quantitative data for use in strategic planning and decision-making.

Ability to: effectively plan, assign, direct and evaluate the work of others; delegate responsibility and authority and assure success; carry out policy directives in an effective and timely manner; establish and maintain effective working relationships with staff, the public, policy makers, other governmental jurisdictions, contractors, community agencies and other County staff; prepare effective correspondence and reports; mediate difficult working relationships; express ideas effectively both orally and in writing; effectively use a personal computer, Microsoft Office software, e-mail, electronic scheduling, and internet to accomplish job functions; respectfully and effectively work with diverse populations and individuals; and work in stressful and sensitive situations.

SALARY

The salary range is $4,523 – $6,390 per month. It is the general policy of the County to start employees in the lower or middle sections of the salary range. Clark County provides a generous benefits package, which includes medical and dental insurance, paid holidays, vacation, sick leave and retirement.

SELECTION PROCESS

1. Application Review: (Pass/Fail) – All applicants must complete a Clark County application and submit it to the Human Resources department by 5:00 p.m. on the closing date. Incomplete applications will not pass the application review. Candidates deemed most qualified will be invited to participate in the remainder of the selection process.
2. Letter of Interest and Resume: (Pass/Fail) – In addition to the Clark County application, applicants must submit a letter of interest and resume highlighting their qualifications for this position. Candidates deemed most qualified will be invited to participate in the remainder of the selection process.
3. Oral Interview: (Weighted 100%) - The interview will be job related and may include, but not be limited to, the qualifications outlined in the job announcement.
